September Meeting Notes

- Kathy Pfeufer reminded the group that volunteers are needed to replace those members who have been "serving" for a long period of time and need a break. The opening for Head Steer is one of the many positions that need to be filled.
  - Members should talk to Kathy if interested in helping and/or taking over some of the positions. Anyone with ideas for a project is encouraged to bring the idea to the steering committee and be willing to take over that project if the idea is accepted. Kath mentioned that a juror was needed for the upcoming Mancuso shows.
  - Rita Fausson volunteered to take over this job. Thank you Rita!!
- Carole Patton reported on her contact with Karen Traber, a new fiber art teacher at Colorado Mesa University currently teaching classes at the Art Center. The scheduled meeting was canceled due to other commitments but they are still planning on getting together. Anyone interested in meeting with Karen and Carole when the date is setup again, contact Carole.
- Jan Warren reported on the entries for the Mancuso Show with the theme "Curvacious". The top jury winners are:
  - Jan Warren, Garnet Hoover, Jill Faskin, Carole O'Brien, Kathleen Malvern. Kathy Schattleitner' quilt was chosen as Member's Choice. There were 22 quilts accepted.

- "Walk in the Woods." Is the theme selected by the AQuA membership for the upcoming World Quilt Show. AQuA has been invited to participate in New England show to be held in Manchester, New Hampshire, August 16-19, 2012. The turn-in date for this show will be the June 16, 2012 AQuA meeting. This particular exhibit will also travel to the greater Philadelphia area to hang at the Pennsylvania National Quilt Extravaganza, September 13-16, 2012.
- Turn in for the Glenwood Show. Member's choice is Carole O'Brien. Congratulations Carole!

Art Opportunities

The Arts Commission Council is putting out a call for more art to hang at Two Rivers Convention Center. It must be 2 dimensional and representative of the Grand Junction area. There are not size limitations and the pieces may or may not be for sale (I do not know whether any percentage is taken - may not be). So far, only paintings and photographs are there, and those were hung last Friday. Quilts would need to have a slat and hook, as pieces are being hung from a nail. The show will be up until the end of December.

Show & Tell

ON THE EDGE OF VALUE IN RETROSPECT

Kathy Pfeufer claimed success in filling her Value's mini workshop last month. Working at the desk or standing at the windows the participants drew or traced a photo they were interested in. Kathy will post the OUTLINE NOTES for this workshop on the web page for anyone who wishes to have them as soon as she can.

Wished I could go too! Sounded like a very worthwhile time from the pictures her hubby, Gary Pfeufer took. Now there is a REAL guy!

1. Jean Roesler working
2. Sherry Schenk working on a sunflower with a hummingbird.

3. Daniela Schupp working on a tracing
4. Sue VanVoorhees working at a window, reversing a drawing and tracing
5. Carole Patton realizing that a pale apple green is a LIGHT value, located in a recessed (dark shaded) door.
6. Kathy Pfeufer talking to Cindy Williams about a flower tracing she is working on
7. (from left to right) Garnet Hoover, Suzanne Barnhart, and Beth Bottorff working at the window working on a tracing.
