

RAVEN MAVENS CRITIQUE GROUP

CHINESE WHISPERS PROJECT

In October 2010 the Raven Mavens Critique Group decided to begin a "Chinese Whispers" project. Kathy Schattleitner took the original photograph and then created her quilt inspired by that photograph. She then passed her quilt on to Jan Warren who interpreted Kathy's quilt in her own manner. Jan passed her quilt on to Rita Faussonne who created her interpretation and returned Kathy's quilt to her and so on until 12 fiber pieces were finished.

The only person who ever saw the original photograph was Kathy Schattleitner.

The big reveal came in October 2011 and this is a photo montage of the results.
