

AQUA MAY 20, 2017

Meeting called to order by head steer Eldrid Schafer at Goodwill. Visitors were welcomed.

Pam Sant gave the treasurers report- current balance $7,733.09

Kathy Schattleitner reported on the up coming Deb Fell workshop to be held at the Clarion Hotel September 8,9,10, 2017. Fifteen members have paid the $120.00 deposit due today. Deb Fell is an abstract quilt artist and will be teaching collage, color and mixed media. The remaining $120.00 will be due at the July meeting. Payment can be sent to Kathy or Susan Strickland. Please if paying in cash put in an envelope with your name on it, checks are preferred.

Eldrid asked for a volunteer to look into printed, wearable name tags, please contact her if interested.

Horizons turn in will be at the August meeting and will be shipped to Mancuso in September. Information is on the web site.

Sandra Hoefner reported that Workshop instructors fees for lectures have gone up and are currently between $250.00-$600.00 The suggestion was made to do a fund raiser at Barnes and Nobel and use that money for education. Susan Strickland and Angela Kenley offered to organize the event.

Eldrid reported that the continuing of the Palisade Quilt Show is being investigated. It would not include other fiber arts.

The membership thanked Jan Rickman for the fabulous library show. She did a great job and all those who saw the exhibit enjoyed it!

Kathy Schattleitner asked members for ideas for future workshops.

Gjeneve Hopkinson will start doing demonstrations of techniques in September. Eldrid Schafer will be doing a dye mini workshop after the June meeting. She will be concentrating on silk.

Congratulations to Arden Blatter, who won the Palisade Peach Festival art contest. We will be seeing her work on tee shirts and posters for the Peach Festival!

Marian Velarde reported on the R 5 school building on 7th and Grand as a potential site for future meetings. She said it has a lot of good light and is spacious. Hopefully it will be open in the fall. Fee of $50.00 has been proposed.

Show and Tell by members. The meeting was adjourned.

Submitted by Susan Sanmann