

AQUA MEETING OCTOBER 21, 2017

Meeting called to order by head steer Eldrid Schafer at the Masonic Temple. Visitor Patty Brenson was welcomed.

Pam Sant gave the treasures report. Current balance $8,321.98. She has applied to change our fiscal year to January to December. Dues for next year are due today.

Susan Strickland reported on the Barnes and Nobel Book Fair to be held December 15, 2017 from 9am-7pm. AQuA will receive a portion of the proceeds on goods and items from the store and café if patrons give cashiers vouchers when purchasing items. We will hand out these vouchers from the two tables that will be set up in the store. Susan asked for volunteers to take 2 hour time slots during the sale, and will need 4 members for each slot. Vouchers can also be used for online sales December 15-20, 2017. Susan also requested small items be donated for an hourly give away. These items need to be brought to our November meeting. Members were shown how to make bookmarks by Angela and asked to bring those to the November meeting.

Wendy reported on the Artist of the Month that will be displayed at Barnes and Nobel the month of December. She handed out trackers that can be placed on the small quilts to prevent theft. The pieces will be tagged with the title, artist name and email address if the item is for sale. Please bring your quilts to the November meeting.

Jan Warren and Terry Lee presented four themes for our next Mancuso Show and members voted Boundaries as the next theme. Details to follow.

Kathy Schattleitner reported that Michele Jackson of Albuquerque will be doing our next workshop in September 2018. It will be a three day workshop September 7,8, and 9, 2018. The workshop is called "Light the Way with Color" and will be held at the Clarion. The Clarion will serve sandwiches for lunch and the proposed cost will be $210.00. Members can see her work at her website quiltfashions.com.

Jan Rickman presented a draft of the new AQuA brochure and was thanked for a beautiful job.

Marian Velarde has found our new meeting site, the Masonic Temple, and we have it under contract for the next year at $50.00/month. Thanks to Marion for her hard work.

After Show and Tell Susan Strickland did a demo for the membership on Tyvek, a fun addition to our materials list.

Meeting adjourned. AQuA Steers October 20, 2017

AQUA STEERS OCTOBER 20, 2017

Meeting was called to order by head steer Eldrid Schafer at Barnes and Nobel. Present : Marian Velarde, Susan Strickland and Susan Sanmann.

Treasurers report a current balance of $8321.98

We need a contract for jurors and the steers will ask Pam Sant to work on that.

Susan Strickland reported that we have a contract with Michele Jackson of Albuquerque for our next workshop. Her art work can be seen on her website, quiltfashions.com. It will be a three day class held at the Clarion on September 7,8,9 2018. The Clarion will provide sandwich lunches.

Marian Velarde has negotiated a contract with the Masonic Temple for our meeting site. Price will be $50.00 a month. We will meet there tomorrow. Thanks to Marian for all her hard work.

Susan Strickland reported on the Book Fair to be held December 15, 2017 9am-7pm at Barnes and Nobel. She will ask for volunteers at tomorrows meeting of four people in two hour increments. Angi will talk tomorrow about making bookmarks as give away items at the tables. Members will be asked to donate items for drawings to be held hourly. Susan and Angi will need help setting up at 8am. Barnes and Nobel will give us vouchers that can be used for both the main store and the café. When a customer uses these vouchers when purchasing items AQUA will receive a portion of the proceeds. These vouchers can also be used online for 5 days following the sale.

Jan Rickman sent a prototype of the brochures that will be ready for the book fair.

Quilts for the Artist Wall at Barnes and Nobel will be displayed through out December.

The meeting was adjourned. Submitted by Susan Sanmann