

AQUA MEETING NOVEMBER 11, 2017

Meeting was called to order by Eldridge Schafer at the Masonic Center. Visitors were welcomed

Treasurer report current balance $8,478.67. Pam Sant stated that she has prepared the paperwork to reopen the IRS case to hopefully get our tax refunds for 2013 and 2014.

Susan Strickland reported on the Barnes and Nobel book fair. The date is December 15, 2017 from 9am-7pm. Members brought in bookmarks that will be handed out during the fair. Members can purchase cheesecakes for $40.00, each cake has 24 slices. The cakes will need to be picked up on December 13 at the store. Voucher number will be added to the web site for anyone wanting to buy from Barnes and Nobel online between December 15-20.

Wendy Bain reported on the art wall at Barnes and Noble. Items will be exhibited during the month of December. All art exhibited at B&N will be brought to January meeting for pickup.

Jacque Weimar asked for input on having a retreat in the spring.

The next workshop will be September 7-9, 2018 at the Clarion. More information will be available soon.

There was a discussion about providing financial assistance to local art related organizations. The steers will explore.

Members show and tell was held.

Meeting adjourned, Submitted by Susan Sanmann

AQUA STEERS NOVEMBER 10, 2017

Meeting called to order by head steer Eldrid Schafer at Barnes and Nobel. Members present were Pam Sant, Jacque Weimar, Marian Velarde, Susan Strickland, Sandra Hoefner, and Susan Sanmann.

Susan Strickland reported on the Barnes & Noble book fair that will be held December 15, 2017. She plans to ask for volunteers to help with putting up and taking down exhibition pieces and to sit at two tables between 9am and 7pm. Members will turn in bookmarks, at tomorrow's meeting, to be handed out as well as items to be given as door prizes. Members will be able to purchase cheesecakes for $40.00 that will need to be picked up at Barnes and Nobles the day of the fair.

Pam Sant stated that she will pursue the recovery of taxes paid to the IRS in 2013 and 2014 and our fiscal year change.

Jacque Weimar volunteered to look into a retreat in February.

Meeting adjourned, Submitted by Susan Sanmann