

AQuA Meeting March 19, 2022

Meeting was held at the Chipeta Golf Course.

We welcomed 3 New Members:

Diana Peacock

Donna Rossman

Becky Michelsen

Video is available for Susan Marks presentation (Marks and Lines) – everyone should have received a link to watch.

Drop off for AQUA booth at the SSQ Quilt Show is April 7th, at the Grand Junction Convention Center, 159 Main Street GJ. Mary Grande's white Chevy truck will be in the parking lot on the South side of the convention center from 11:45 – 1:15. Look for Bev and Mary sitting on the tailgate awaiting your treasures. Remember, if you have items to sell, these can also be turned in at this time. Please bring your items marked with your name and sales price (and include sales tax – you are responsible for paying the state these taxes).

Julia discussed what is necessary to set up the booth and the committee has the details of the booth in hand. Thanks to Pam Sant for volunteering to arrange getting the required metal display racks. The volunteer slots are filled for monitoring the booth during the show. Thanks to everyone for making this work!

Colorado Quilts were turned in.

Turn in for "Nature Shapes" is April 16 for Mancuso World Quilt Show (Massachusetts) and Pennsylvania National Quilt Extravaganza. A review of the sleeve requirements was presented and can be found on our website under How To and Demo's. Also, for $20.00, AQUA will photograph your work and you will get a CD of these images.

The Turn in for "In Your Dreams" is July and Ricky Tims will be the Juror for this show.

The City Market Balance is currently $1370.00. A call for suggestions on where to donate these funds to Contribute to Art in the GJ Community was made. If you have ideas, please bring them to the next meeting.

Treasurers Report was presented. Current final balance is $9713.18. The 990 form for AQUA has been filed.

Sharon Braunagel presented the AQUA submission for the Owls Nest Display, and the work was delivered to the Owls Nest Shop.

The SAGA Trunk Show will be at the Sunset Slope Quilters Meeting on April 13. If you are not a member and want to see the show, please show up as register as a guest. Meetings are held at The Canyon View Vineyard Church 736 24 ½ Road, GJ. Meetings start at 9:00 am.

November 5-6, 2022 is the Retreat. The Chipeta Gold Course as Venue was proposed and approved.

Quilts for Quilt Inspirations have been delivered (2nd year Anniversary). Robin Hood (owner) has requested suggestions for teachers (classroom size maximum of 16 people), and she has requested someone to pattern kits for iconic scenes from the Western Slope. If you have any ideas, please see Robin to discuss.

The “Playing on the Surface” fat quarters were exchanged.

Show and Tell:

Susan showed some fabric she had prepared using bleeding tissue paper.

Sharon showed a silk/wool roving bowl she made in a workshop with Debbie Jones.

Meeting was adjourned and was followed by the workshop on Fabric Painting using Derwent InkTense Media.

The next meeting is April 16, 9:30 am at the Masonic Center (2400 Consistory Court GJ)

Respectfully Submitted,
Sharon Braunagel
