

AQUA MINUTES MARCH 21, 2024

Sharon called the meeting to order as Mary got the computer operational for a Zoom presentation by Vicki Conley.

After the Zoom, Bev announced that there were 5 slots left for the Vicki Conley workshop and reminded those already registered for the class that their first payment and the cancellation agreement were due.

Becky reported that the membership list is being purged of people who have not paid the dues and reminded everyone that there is a $10 fee for non-members to watch our Zoom presentations.

Becky issued thanks to Jacque for the Retreat.

Our balance is $11,997.30.

There was a discussion of our 501 C7 status. As a result, AQUA cannot make donations to other groups and sales from our activities are not qualified to be tax deductible. Members must have their own Special Event License.

Sharon announced that the group challenge is still open and two more groups have formed.

A sign-up sheet for volunteers at our booth during the SSQ Quilt show was passed around. The chairperson for vendors at the show announced that there are still tickets available for the Ricky Tims presentation and lectures.

Sharon announced that only art-quilt related items can be shown in our booth. These include finished art quilts and items used in art quilts such as hand-dyed fabric or ribbons. Wearable art will not be included due to space considerations.

Pam Sant and Jacqui have agreed to assist Becky with an audit of our books.
