As quilts for “Light Into Darkness” were being turned in and organized, members voted on themes for next year’s Mancuso Shows. Selected were Fences and Secret Garden.

Sherida went through the Call for Entry for our September Exhibition at the Art Center. Slats are required unless the pieces are mounted with a hanging mechanism on the back. Linda and Mary described how they construct the slats for their work and reminded members that this information is on our website.

Turn-in will occur at the August 15 meeting. Sharon will collect the quilts and turn them in to the Art Center in September. Opening will be at First Friday and the show runs through September. Sharon will pick up our work and pieces will be returned at the October meeting. If a member cannot attend the August meeting, arrangements will be made with Sharon to get them to her for turn-in.

Becky announced that refunds for the Vicki Conley workshop are ready.

There were 19 quilts turned in for the exhibition. Members Choice was Beauty Born Again by Cindy Williams.
