

AQUA MAY 16, 2024

Sharon welcomed everyone and asked Bev about the upcoming workshop with Vicki Conley: Photo to Imagination. There are a couple of spots left and Bev brought sign-up sheets in case someone has had computer complications. Becky told the group that this will be a good workshop for beginners.

Sharon announced that the rust-dyeing workshop will be at Bonnie's home in Palisade following the meeting. She reminded everyone that in June there will be no business meeting as we will convene at her house for a Dye Party. She will have selections of supplies for several processes. A supply lists will be sent—please bring a lunch. Cost is $10 per person for members.

Becky asked everyone to sign up for the City Market monies.

New members and guests were introduced.

Mary explained the process for the quilt turn in. 19 quilts were entered for the Wild and Wacky challenge. Kim Keller's piece was voted Member's Choice.
