Meeting Agenda:

1. Financial report by Dee Harwood, Financial Officer reported an
 - Account balance of $15,164.83
2. Vicki Conley workshop
 - 20 people have signed up and that puts the final cost at 230.00 per person
3. Workshops for 2027
 - Survey will be put out to see what kind of interest there is.
 - Different types of workshops were discussed rather than have the costs of instructors coming to Grand Junction.
 - i. On-line tutorials like Zenna James, her channel on YouTube, Both Things Creative
 - ii. Group participation in on-line classes, sponsored by national educators like Ricky Tims
 - iii. Possibly sharing costs with other art groups
4. Voted to buy Mary Grande an external hard drive to help modernize her computer system, this will help organize and maintain AQuA files
5. Memorial (Wake) planned for Susie Sanmann for the AQuA monthly meeting.
6. Perspective class planned for upcoming AQuA meeting.
 - Members will pay $5.00 to participate.
7. SSQ show is May 1&2 at the convention Center
 - Terry has two open volunteer slots
 - Bev will send out email explaining how to vend items at the show.
 - Our past participation raised questions from the State of Colorado about whether our booth was classified as a vendor booth and was responsible for state tax. Dee Harwood clarified with the State of Colorado that our booth at the show is not a vendor booth and does not fall into the tax category requiring state tax payment. She also contacted the show organizers to ensure our booth is not reported as a vendor booth to the state for future shows. This ensures we comply with state tax requirements.
