AQuA Meeting Minutes

03/19/2026

---

Bev Hart, Head Steer, opened this month's AQuA meeting with the following agenda items:

1. Guests and new members welcomed and introduced
2. Vicki Conley workshop
  - First payment of $125.00 collected.
  - Eighteen members have signed up.
3. Mesa to Monument Quilt show
  - Sharon Braunagel will be curating the Art quilt portion of the show; she is requesting Art quilts from AQuA members.
  - AQuA's booth at the M2M show.
    - volunteered Terry Eagan as booth coordinator, responsible for setup and take down.
      - ❖ Sharon Braunagel volunteered to be a resource for the booth coordinator, since she will be at the M2M show hanging the art quilts.
    - AQuA members may have their own work hung in the booth and have items for sale.
      - ❖ Any member selling items at the booth will need to be responsible for paying their own city and state taxes.
    - Member sign-up sheet made available for specific time slots for member to sign up. These members will need to man the booth and be responsible for answering questions about AQuA and collecting payment for items being sold during the show. Many members volunteered.
4. Mary Grande clarified the to-late email about the Elements of Art Exhibition at Montrose Center for Arts.
  - Bonnie Bucknam will send out an email about the mistake on the poster.
    - They will be extending submission till Friday, March 20, 2026 for AQuA members.
5. Kudos
  - Ruth Field won the Palisade Peach contest
  - Cindy William's photo was featured in "Spoke and Blossom" Magazine.
  - Linda Beach is featured in this issue of "Quilting Arts Magazine."
6. Marla Ferguson reviewed and encouraged members to participate in the Color challenge, with a turn in at the October meeting.
7. Show and Tell
8. Next month's presentation will be a class on perspective drawing.
  - Instructor will be from CMU
  - 11-2pm following next month's AQuA meeting
  - $10.00 from each member who participates to cover the Art Center room costs
  - Bring your own lunch
  - Supplies: 9/11" sketch book, pencils, eraser, ruler
9. This month's presentation was a trunk show by Jan Warren. Many members asked when she slept and ate, due to the volume of work she presented. It was amazing.
